FRANCO-BRITISH AND SERBIAN PROGRESS IN THE BALKANS.

[Reuter's Service to The "Telegraph."]

THE KAISER AT IT AGAIN.

SPEAKS BITTERLY AGAINST GREAT BRITAIN.

November 8, 1.20 pm. According to a telegram from Northern France the Kaiser in an address to fifty thousand of his troops at Thielt, spoke bitterly against Great Britain. He inferentially betrayed some unessiness as to the position in the West, remarking "although important results are pending in the Balkans it is the Western front on which all eyes are turned and where the necessity for success is paramount."

THE RUSSIANS.

IMPROBABLE THAT THE GERMANS WILL BE ABLE TO WINTER COMFORTABLY.

November 8, 135 p.m. A telegram from Petrograd says that the tactics employed by the Russians on the occasion of their latest victory, mentioned on the 7th inst. are typical of those now adopted on both sides of the Eastern front; namely, short sharp dashes with rapidly concentrated forces on carefully selected points. On this occasion the German reserves did not move rapidly enough.

Every day makes it more improbable that the Germans will be able to winter comfortably in the Riga and Dwinsk region.

Peasant predictions of an early winter have been fulfilled, today there are fourteen degrees of frost registerered.

AUSTRIANS REMOVE STORES FROM KOVEL AND LEMBERG. the Bulgarians in the region of Viania.

November 8, 1.35 p.m. According to Renter's correspondent at Petrograd a telegram from Kieff states :- Owing to their reverses in Galicia, the Germans have been forced to send re-inforcements there, at the expense of other sections on the Eastern front. Prisoners state that the Austrians have begun to remove stores from Kovel and Lemberg.

RUSSIANS PENETRATE EASTERN WORK OF KOVEL.

November 8, 1.35 p.m. A telegram from Petrograd says that the Russian cavalry with light artillery, is doing magnificent work against General von Linsingen; it has penetrated eastward of Kovel and has already communique claims that Agetro-Germans have captured three taken over two thousand prisoners.

The Russian infantry in the Olinka district made a series of successful attacks, they were also supported by light guns.

ANOTHER GERMAN CRUISER SUNK.

OFF THE SWEDISH COAST.

November 8, 4.40 p.m. According to Reuter's correspondent at Amsterdam a Berlin official message states that the Cruiser Undine whilst patrolling off the south coast of Sweden was sunk by two torpedoes from a submarine. Almost all the crew were saved.

THE ALLIES IN THE WEST.

NOTHING TO REPORT.

November 8, 4.40 p.m. A Paris communique says that there is nothing to report.

TRADE RETURNS FOR OCTOBER.

A WELCOME FEATURE.

November 8, 1.20 p.m. A welcome feature in the trade returns for October is that the balance of trade against the United Kingdom has been reduced by one and three quarter millions, as compared with the previous month. Grain imports fell half a million in value, which is largely owing to the shortage of the supply of wheat from India. Meat fell two millione.

A feature of the imports for the ten months is the incresse of nearly twenty-five million pounds in quantity, and one and a half million pounds in value, of tea, of which upwards of twenty million pounds are from India.

Cotton imports have increased by nearly three millions sterling and rubber by half a million.

The chief increases in exports are in iron, steel, woollen and cotton goods.

The Kitchener Canasa.

How any person in possession of his or her sanity could serious ly circulate and apparently believe such an absurd rumour as that Earl Kitchener had resigned passes one's comprehension: the present juncture only the serione illness of our most distinguished soldier and administrator would justify a step so extraordinary and so profoundly serious. Lord Kitchener is not the man to take such a stop merely (if such were the case) because he found himself at variance with one or more of his colleagues in the Cabinet He is much more likely to tell them exactly what he thinks and leave it to them to co-operate with him-with or without their complete approval or without caring much, if anything, about their disapproval. It is not without good grounds that his Lordship has got a reputation for being man of atrong character, one who knows what is wanted, what he wants and what is essential in the country's interests. German Shipping and the Wan Grave doubts exist outside of Germany as to the stability o German shipping and rumours o mpending insolvency have been current for some time. The in dustry upon which so much o Germany's commercial prosperity was built has been sorely hit. W already know enough to make u sure that years of peace mus elapse ere German shippin concerns are restored to a position equal to that of sixteen month ago. Nevertheless, Herr Heineken the general manager of the Nord deutscher Lloy J, has been endeav ouring, through the columns of the Lokalanzeiger, to not fort the position in such a way as t allay the fears of his fellow share holders. But to do this, he ha to assume that there will be st "undoubteldy victorious issue t the war and that the commercia co operation of all the nation will follow in order to avert the danger of a commerical war.

The Balkans Campaign.

For the moment the chie interest in the war has been transferred from the Franco Belgian and Russian fronts where the enemy's offensive seem to have been paralyzed, to the Balkan Peninsula, in which lie the strategic key to the future Europe. The situa is admittedly there tion very serious, and the public will have learned with satisfaction that Lord Kitchener, in whon they repose such great confidence is now on his way to the Near East after consultation with the French authorities in Paris, in order to study the intricate problem which there awaits solution. A Lord Lansdowne pointed on recently in the House o Lords, the Austro-German forces foiled in every other direction have turned to the Balkan State in the hope of achieving there the success that has been denied them elcowhere. By lavish promises of the territory of her ally, Turkey Germany has bribed Bulgaria to co-operate with her in an atlack on Serbia, with the object of hack ing a way through the small wedge of Serbian territory that adjoins Roumania and separates Hungary from Bulgaria. The possession of this would allow of the passage of H. M. S. Formidable Memorial. There has just been erected in the little hillside cometery of Lyme Regis an imposing memorial to the victims of the crew of the battleship Formidable which was torpedoed on the first day of this year. The memorial which takes the form of a finely-exed granite Oeltic cross on three massive bases stands immediately over the graves of six of the nine men who, it will be remembered, died from exposure at the result of the terrible gale in which they were buffeted about in their boat for 20 hours after leaving the battleship. The Mayor of Lymo Regis was responsible for raising the fund for the memorial, which was liberally subscribed by his towns-people. The Admiralty also contributed, as well as the relatives of the victims.

Our readers will agree with us that matters have come to a mustbe over this cruelty business. The mere dealing with isolated cases that come to the magistrates' notice is just a drop in the bucket. If the Britishers of the Colony mean to show the Chinese that proper regard should be had to the feelings of the lower animals. they must combine to set on foot a society whose funds will allow of the appointing of inspectors. If every European would give quites emall annual subscription, monetary difficulties need no longer stand in the way. How to Set to Work.

Nor would Europeans be the only persons willing and anxious to subscribe. There are, among Chineso, many who are disgusted with the prevailing indifference to the feelings of beasts and birds, and who would very readily give every assistance to any movement calculated to alter things in this respect. Not only so, but if the Bench would follow the custom in vogue in Shanghai—that of handing over to the preventive society all sums taken in cruelty fines - the new S. P. C. A. would soon be rich and flourishing. Meanwhile we would like to point out that, even in cases that are actually brought before the for carrying, let us say, pigeons that are tied up in a manner certain to inflict great torture on He there is an end of the matter. LOG BOOK,

'Australian Shippinge:(')

Mesers. John Paxton and Co.,

Sydney, N. S. W., report under date of July 12 that 1,575,688 bales of wool were exported from Australia during the last wool season (July 1-14 to June 80-15). against 1,988,578 balan during the preceding twelvemonth. a decrease of 390,888 bales. It is certain that the new senson's clip must show a further heavy decrease. The total quantity of wool sold in Australia during the nast sesson was 1,213,774 bales against 1,699,884 bales during previous sesson-on the whole, an unexpectedly satisfactory ending. The same firm advise under date of July 26: Wheat crop is looking very promising in all the Australian State except Queensland. Politicians talk of a great exportable surplus but prudent folk do not forget it is still July, and that many things can and might happen between now and middle. to end of November, when barvesting will probably be in fall swing. Coal trade continues for from what could be desired. There are only 6 overses vessels in port at Newcastle loading and waiting turn. Bad as the trade is, colliery atrikes continue and generally over more or less trivial matters. During the past 6 months the exports from Newcastle were only 1,880,193 tone, being a decrease of 754,138 tons when compared with the first six months of 1914, Judging by an answer to a question in Parliament, it seems probable that no further steps will be taken to put the Australian Navigation Act into force, until the war is over.

American Shipping and the Far East.

Washington, Sout. 25.—Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts, one of the three leading aspirants for the Republican nomination for President, has given special study to the effect of the seamen's act, and declared to-day that it would be amended in the next Congress without opposition from the labour leaders. "The seamen's act seems to be one of the most hermful and disastrous pieces of legislation put upon the statute books at the last session of Congress," said Senator Weeks. "It was demanded in the interest of labour: but I shall be surprised if any respon-ible labour leader will oppose the efforts to be put forward for its reasonable amendment, as it has resulted in harm to those whom it was intended to benefit and resulted in great loss to labourers in other fields, such as those employed in the great lumber industries of the West. "It is evident that the effect of this legislation has been to etrip the American flag practically from every time-Pacific vestel and to turn over great trade routes that have been developed by American energy to the Japanese. Many do not realize the harm it has done in other directions through disrapting longestablished markets for Americanmade goods in the Far East. One large mill at Seattle has lost an Oriental customer who purchased from it $100,000 worth of lambor every month, or $1,200,000 a year. It is said that this loss is caused by the seamen's law. This customer has placed his future orders in British Columbia, where he can secure transport facilities not aubject to the rigorous requirements of the seamen's act. This is only one instance of the loss, which must be enormous. "That is why I shall be surprised to find labour leaders opposed to proper amendment to the law. With the abandonment of the open-door policy in China, the passage of and the adoption of the seamen's agt it will take us years to remedy the injury inflicted upon American industry and labour by the present Administration."

"A Jovial Monk." A witness named Monk was asked at the London Bessions last m nth how many drinks he might take in the course of a day. "Well, talling you the truth, eir, and without giving you a wrong answer, he replied, "L could drink forty or fifty a day."

THEATRE ROYAL.

Horace Goldin And Company. The popular magician, Mr. Horace Goldin, and his clever companions were well received at the Theatre Royal last night, where they gave a show that was in every respect excellent.

The first part of the programme was distinctly reminiscent of the Home music hall evening, and it. The third portion of the programme took the form of a play without words, beautifully mounted, and including a lot of really good class dumbbell A European girl is taken prisoner by some Moore, and the acting shows her subsequent adventures, her remarkable disappearing acts, and her final escape. The tigresa which figures n the story is a handsome besat which ends by doing a disappearing act of her own. A pretty and feature of artistic whole was the dancing, in front of the tigress' cage, of the favourites of the Sultan—girls prettily clad in Moorish dress.

The company will perform again to-night at 9.15.

Journalism in Canton. Canton, November 7. In view of the present unsettled state of affairs, General Lung ha issued some new regulations concerning newspapers published in this city. Five special censors have been appointed and to publish anything that is not first examined and approved by these men. This is to prevent any expressions of individual opinion upon the subject of the change of government.

More Worthless Tax Collectors. The Fruance Commissioner has lately made a complaint to the Governor, saying the new officials sent out to examine the deeds of land and collect the taxes are doing nothing and are only an additional expense. GERMANS IN CHINA:

MORE CHARACTERISTIC FOUL PLAY,

(From Our Own Correspondent).

November, 9, 2.35 a.m.

Our Peking correspondent telegraphs that there is indignation amongst the Allied powers at Germany's continued abuse of China's neutrality, which is becoming dangerous to the State and is daily increasing. Gratuitous copies of a scandalous publication, giving a wholly false history of the war, have been printed in English in Shanghai, and are being distributed to universaties and schools, to Chinese officials and in the interior. The chief agents of this campaign are Major Dinkelmann and Captain Koenig, both German officers who partook in the defence of Tsingtan but who are now employed by the Chinese Government.

Dinkelmann is a so-called military adviser, but he devotes his whole time to the German propaganda, unbeknown to the Chin-

Mesers. Samuel; Montagu & Co., in their circular dated London, September 30 state :- The movement has been adverse to the Bank of England., The following. amounts were received by the Bank: -- September 23, £38,000 in bar gold, September 27, £70-6000 in bar gold September 29, 2725 000 in bar gold. Withdrawals were made as under:—September 23, £208,000 in U.S. A. gold coin; September 23, £43,000 in bar gold; September 23, £400,000 in sovereigns for America: September 23, £275,-000 in sovereigns for Spain; September 23, £50,000 in sovereigns for Portugal; September 24, £50,-000 in sovereigns for U.S.A.; September 25, £262,000 in bar gold; September 25, £26,000 in foreign gold coin; September 25, $6,000 in Sovereigns for Canada: (September 28, £388,000 in sovereigns for U.S. A.; September 28, £50,000 in sovereigns set saids for account of Switzerland; September 29, £270,000 in sovereigns set aside for account of During the week the net reduction amounted to £1,187,000. The total output of gold in the Yukonmining district now reaches 185,000,000 dollars. This sum has come chiefly from places within fifty miles of Dawson. Since 1910 five | 8 million dollars worth of gold have been despatched from Davison annually. The output of gold in the Province of Ontario for the six months ended June 30, 1915. amounted to 3,570,072 dolwith K as compared 2,014,069 dollars, an increase of R fifty per cent. over the period of 1914. The official announcement. made by Lord Reading to the New York Press that the issue of a loan of £100,000,000 in the United States of America upon the combined security of Great Britain and Franco has been arranged, has an important bearing | S upon the foreign exchanges and the demand for gold. With regard to silver the circular states: The general position of the market at the present time is not unfavourable. It is true that the continuity of purchases for the K U. S. Tressury, now that a total verging upon 4,000,000 oz. has been secured, seems to have been V arrested for the moment. A temporary cessation may create a dullish feeling, and encourage more freedom in selling, but the knowledge that the purchases | g will be resumed in due course I cannot fail to maintain a good | S The withdrawal understone. of gold from circulation, not here but also in other countries, is good for silver, as there exists amongst some people an undoubted preference for S silver coin over notes of low de- D nomination. Notes of high value 3 are not unwelcome to those who hold and handle fairly large sums, but wage earners in this country. who spend quickly, and are scous- H tomed to carry money loose in the pocket, not in a purse, do not take so kindly to a currency of paper. Support, more or less continuous, may be expected from a demand for coinage throughout the period of P war, and when substantial and H constant orders come into the S market from an important quarter like the U. S. Treasury for St instance, an advance may be U recorded, even though China may | w be able to release a portion of its stock at the higher level. This w has been the case recently, and the market is the healthier for a S. reduction of the Chinese holding. Purchases in London for account of the Indian bazaare do not represent the total absorption for tha quarter, as supplies have filtere through other channels than London. An Indian currency return for the 22nd instant, gave details
